

About

Tuesday, 04 December 2007

Last Updated Saturday, 05 January 2008

Athens of the South AZA #258

Quick Facts: Athens of the South #258

Cotton States Region #72

Region Cotton States Region-----

--->Nickname Athens CSRGeographic Nashville, TN

TN, AL, LA, AK, MS

Mascot Bull Cottontail Bunny

Colors Blue & Gold

Blue & Green

About The Aleph Tzadik Aleph

The Aleph Zadik Aleph (AZA) is the fraternity component of BBYO for ninth through twelfth grade boys. Since its establishment in 1924, AZA has provided Jewish and personal enrichment to hundreds of thousands of young men throughout the world. It's Hebrew letters - Aleph, Zadik, Aleph - stand for Ahava, Tzedakah, Ahdoth, which symbolize fraternal love, benevolence and harmony.

With emphasis on the importance of the well-rounded individual, AZA's unique programming includes social programming with B'nai B'rith Girls and other AZA chapters, community service projects, athletic tournaments and Judaic enrichment programs. The diversity of programming, coupled with the sense of camaraderie and leadership training, provided by AZA simply cannot be paralleled by any other youth organization. Often, AZA chapters plan events jointly with local BBG (B'nai B'rith Girls) chapters.